

We have listed our property twice with Norm Lacey, and have found that he is one of the most professional agents we have used. He is always ready to help and follow through on our requests in a very timely manner. A true professional and we recommend him highly for your real estate transactions. Fletcher and Linda Morse