

After trying to sell our house unsuccessfully for well over a year with no success, we were frustrated by lack of effort, failures in communication and missed marketing opportunities by our previous two agents. That is when we gave Norm Lacey a call at Dune Country Realty. He was highly recommended by several people in the community and he easily lived up to their confidence.

At our first meeting, Norm had a plan to sell our house ready to go. He kept us up to date on showings of our house as well as the rest of the local market. Best of all, Norm gave us real expectations for our property. His advice was excellent and he assisted us all the way through closing, making this as easy for us as possible.

We highly recommend Norm Lacey at Dune Country Realty!
